Mary Anne,
Sorry, I just looked at this email. The drawing does clearly show the mitigation area on the site, so that is very good.
Thanks, Tina

Subject: Final Basis of Design drawings - Port of Tacoma Upper Clear creek Mitigations Site

Hi Folks -

The Port of Tacoma has loaded their Final Basis of Design (BOD) Plans (drawings) to their ftp site.

the download process is easy.

The ftp site access instructions are provided below (upper and lower case matters):

URL: <https://webftp.portoftacoma.com/WebInterface/login.html>

Login:

username: ucchp

password: UpperCC!

The drawings will be available for up to ten days, so please download the drawings as soon as you can.

Thanks much!
